The Lenny Zakim Fund (LZF) has awarded a total of $619,000 to 58 nonprofit organizations in Eastern Massachusetts as part of its annual grantmaking program. Ranging from $2,500 to $20,000, the unrestricted grants will help local nonprofits support vulnerable populations and address a range of issues such as maternal health, food access, community organizing, special education, domestic violence, career development, housing instability, criminal justice reform, harm reduction, environmental justice, and workers' rights.

Eric Esteves, Executive Director of the Lenny Zakim Fund, said, "Our grantmaking continues to evolve to meet the demands of small, grassroots nonprofits with limited ability to raise other funds. Given the well-documented disparities in philanthropic investment, I am proud of the Fund's sustained commitment to address that racial funding gap with two-thirds of the nonprofits we fund led by people of color."

On Thursday, February 25th, the Fund's 25th annual Awards Ceremony will gather nearly 300 representatives of grassroots organizations and the Fund's donors for a free virtual event to celebrate the outstanding work of each of the 2021 grant recipients. Featured keynote speakers include Ben Echevarria of The Welcome Project, which builds the collective power of immigrants to participate in and shape community decisions; Olu Ibrahim of Kids in Tech, which excites, educates, and empowers children to develop the necessary tech skills and aptitudes to participate in and be future leaders of the 21st-century innovation economy; and Daniele Levine of Community Cooks, which mobilizes volunteer cooks to help their neighbors struggling with food insecurity. Attendees will also enjoy a special musical performance written and sung by an inspiring teen mentor from the Dream Out Loud Center in New Bedford and experience the rhythm and energy of Afrobeats with a special routine from Africano Waltham's youth dance group, the Afro Diamonds.

"The Awards Ceremony is our way of highlighting and honoring those at the center of social justice work; the changemakers and community heroes who continually push for equity and justice," said Esteves.

About The Lenny Zakim Fund

Established in 1995 by the late civil rights leader Lenny Zakim, The Lenny Zakim Fund continues to reflect his work and ideals by providing financial support, education, technical assistance, and networking opportunities to small, community-based organizations and individuals who are determined to become vehicles of critical change. Its mission is to develop deep relationships and build bridges among people and communities to advance social, economic, and racial justice.
